

Khon Kaen University

มหาวิทยาลัยขอนแก่น

English for Medical Professionals

Miss Piyarat Sonchaiya
B.A. (French)
M.A. (English)

Giving orders

- Would you _____, please? Would you sit here, please?
 - Could you _____? Could you show me your arms?
 - I need you to _____.
 - Please _____.
 - Please don't _____.
 - Try not to _____.
- Try not to move.

Making questions

- Do you _____?
- Did you _____?
- Have you _____?
- Are you _____?

Do you feel dizzy or nauseous?

Did you take any medicines?

Have you ever had operations?

Are you feeling scared?

- Lie down here.
- Take off your trousers except underwear.
- Roll up your sleeves.
- Inhale and exhale to check your lungs.
- Take deep breath in and hold it.
- Stretch your leg.

- Do you have any past medical history?
- Have you had any operations?
- Do you take any medicines?
- Are you allergic to any medicines?

Taking the patient's blood pressure

- I'm going to _____

I'm going to take your pulse.

I'm going to take your temperature.

I'm going to take your blood pressure.

- Medical readings

Blood pressure: 120 over 80

(120 is the systolic blood pressure and 80 is the diastolic blood pressure)

Temperature: 98.6 degrees fahrenheit

Pulse: 70 beats per minute

Explaining medication

- This medicine is _____

- This medication is _____ an antibiotic

a steroid

an anti-inflammatory

a pain reliever

a sedative

a diuretic

- This is medicine for _____

Stomach acid

diabetes

infection

Sleep

pain

headaches

- This is medication to _____ Stop pain

prevent nausea

Prevent blood clots

help with your arthritis

- You will be discharged today.
- Give us some time to complete these procedures, please.
- Here are your discharge instruction.
- If you stay here after 12.00, you will be discharged for an extra day.
- Here are the medicines the doctor has prescribed.

I would like to make an appointment with you to follow-up .

- Would _____ be convenient for you?

Would next Monday be convenient for you?

- How about _____?

How about 11 a.m.?

Thank you very much for your attention

